Consultation on the Future Education Offer in Whiteley and Fareham

The purpose of this consultation is to seek the views of stakeholders in the community on the proposed options to meet the future need for secondary school provision in Whiteley and for managing the impact on existing local schools.

Context for consultation

This consultation will run from Thursday 28 March 2024 until 11:59pm Friday 31 May 2024.

Hampshire County Council will be building a new 900 place secondary school to serve the new housing development at Whiteley. The new secondary school is planned to open in September 2027 for ages 11 to 16 years, admitting up to 180 students per year group.

The building of a new secondary school at North Whiteley will have an impact on existing secondary schools in two neighbouring school place planning areas:

- Fareham North and West (The Henry Cort Community College and Brookfield School)
- Fareham Central and East (Cams Hill School, Fareham Academy, Crofton School and Portchester Community School)

About the proposals

The County Council is consulting on three different options to meet the need for sufficient local secondary school places across Fareham and Whiteley. The options under consideration are:

Option 1: Build North Whiteley Secondary as a new 900 place Academy and The Henry Cort Community College remains operational.

Option 2: Build North Whiteley Secondary as a new 900 place Academy and The Henry Cort Community College closes.

Option 3: Relocate The Henry Cort Community College to the North Whiteley secondary site in new 900 place accommodation.
