1. Summary

- 1.1. The purpose of this report is to provide the Audit Committee with information on the instances that the County Council has used its investigatory powers in the last financial year, as required by the Code of Practice issued by the Home Office. It is also to provide assurance that the County Council uses its surveillance powers in a lawful and proportionate way.
- 1.2. The level of use of surveillance powers for 2016/17 is very low, continuing the trend seen in recent years.

2. Contextual Information

- 2.1. The County Council operates a strict control policy which ensures that only authorised surveillance takes place in accordance with the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA).
- 2.2. In June 2016 a report was presented to the Committee detailing the County Council's use of surveillance powers in 2015-2016. This report (in addition to any quarterly reports) presents information for the period 2016-2017. The last quarterly report to this Committee was 2 February 2017.
- 2.3. All applications for covert surveillance activity are coordinated through the County Council's Trading Standards Service (Legal and Compliance Team) as per the current County Council's RIPA policy. Only one senior officer within that service can act as authorising officer for the whole of the County Council. The responsibility for the governance of the Council's use of surveillance powers rests with the Council's Monitoring Officer.

- 2.4. In addition, there is a legal requirement for judicial approval, through a magistrate, of all authorisations under RIPA obtained by local authorities in accordance with the provisions of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012. Since 1 November 2012 where Hampshire County Council has sought the required judicial approval of surveillance activity, it has been granted.
- 2.5. The County Council's use of surveillance powers is regularly subject to external inspection, by both the Office of the Surveillance Commissioner and the Interception of Communication Commissioner's Office. In his regulatory function, the Assistant Surveillance Commissioner reviews the County Council's use of directed surveillance, covert human intelligence source and CCTV systems under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act. In his last report in January 2015, the Assistant Surveillance Commissioner indicated his satisfaction with the County Council's application of its covert activities arrangements. He expressed that the County Council has 'a generally sound RIPA structure, policy and procedures and committed senior management', and has recommended some changes for implementation for the future, which have been accepted, to make the County Council's procedures more robust and stand up to scrutiny.
- 2.6. The Trading Standards Service has adopted the Intelligence Operating Model (IOM) as a means of identifying suspicious activity for further investigation and, thus ensuring resources are used efficiently. The introduction of the IOM has contributed towards the decline in recent surveillance activity as the nature of investigations' identified have not warranted such techniques being used.
- 2.7. A number of changes to the way that local authorities are permitted to operate the powers within RIPA were made as part of the Protection of Freedoms Act, and those changes came into force on 1 November 2012. These restrict the use of such powers to the investigation of serious crime. This did not effect the County Councils use of these powers as in practice it already restricted its use of surveillance to these areas, for example, the sale of counterfeit goods, and alcohol and cigarettes to children.
- 2.8. Officers of the County Council's Trading Standards Service ensure that surveillance efforts are targeted towards protecting those who are being cheated by businesses that trade fraudulently or, unfairly treated by businesses that act with gross negligence towards their customers; particularly young, vulnerable or elderly customers. Such work is often done in response to complaints from members of the public, and in conjunction with the Police and UK Border Agency.
- 2.9. It should be noted that the use of surveillance is not the totality of any criminal investigation, but a small part of it, and that criminal investigations may not complete their passage through the criminal court process for many months, if not years after the surveillance activity has ceased.
- 1.1. The principal reasons for the use of surveillance are for prevention and detection of crime and not for criminal proceedings. As such, conviction rates, although excellent, are not the only measure of success (different methods of disposal such as letters of written warning, Simple Cautions and website takedowns are also justifiable indicators of RIPA usage).

The following table gives an indication of the results from the use of surveillance in the fight against counterfeit goods:

Table A

Year	Written Warnings	Convictions		Value of Fake Goods Seized in Year
		Simple Cautions	Prosecutions <sup>1</sup>
2008-2009	6	5	2	£92,945
2009-2010	17	4	1	£87,790
2010-2011	15	3	8	£38,550
2011-2012	2	0	7	£38,750
2012-2013	1	0	5	£138,595
2013-2014	3	0	5	£149,195
2014-2015	0	0	5	£5,890
2015-2016	0	1	9	£80,835
2016-2017	1	0	2	0
Total				£ 632,550

2.10. The approvals for surveillance for the period of April 2016 to March 2017 are shown in Appendix 1.

3. Value for Money

3.1. In the period of April 2016 to March 2017 all RIPA activity has been conducted by the Trading Standards Service which operates the Intelligence Operating Model as a means of directing resources towards area of most harm and detriment being identified. The appropriate methodology for dealing with such investigations is individually assessed accordingly to the circumstances and may utilise a variety of enforcement techniques; of which one may be surveillance. Having a range of enforcement techniques available ensures that only those which are necessary and proportionate are used and, accordingly are not used just because they can. Where there is no need to use surveillance, isn't conducted.

3.2. It should also be borne in mind that surveillance activity of the nature governed by the RIPA framework would ordinarily, although not exclusively, occur in the earlier stages of any investigation. Due to the complex nature of some investigations the end result, in terms of any outcome, may not be seen for many months and usually not in the same financial year. This can be seen in the figures for 2016-2017 in Table A.

<sup>1</sup> Subject to caveat that not all criminal proceedings will have completed and will include convictions and proceedings which may still be active

3.3. Whilst the number of authorisations for RIPA surveillance activity has dropped in recent years, this cannot be used as an indication of likely future use and as such, it is appropriate to ensure that future enforcement capability remains unaffected in order to ensure that the authority remains as efficient and effective as it can be.

4. Continued use of Surveillance Powers

4.1. In order to continue to be able to use its surveillance powers under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act (RIPA), the County Council must have a formal approved Policy on its use. This Policy must be reviewed and approved on an annual basis. The County Council's Policy on Surveillance (2016-2017) was presented and approved by the Executive Member for Policy and Resources in September 2016. A Policy for use in 2017/18 will be presented to the Executive Member for Policy and Resources in September 2017.

5. Use of Camera Systems

- 5.1. Although not covered under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act (RIPA) and subject to different regulations, the use of camera systems is also a form of surveillance. This part of the report provides the assurance that the County Council operates any such systems in a proportionate and lawful way.
- 5.2. The County Council does not operate the large scale high street CCTV monitored systems that may be found in a District or Unitary Authority, however, the Council does own and operate a small number of CCTV, ANPR (vehicle number plate recognition) and other camera systems in a variety of locations and for a number of purposes.
- 5.3. A Surveillance Camera Code of Practice has been introduced under the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 which applies to the use of surveillance camera systems that operate in public places, regardless of whether or not there is any live viewing, or recording of images or information or associated data. The County Council is required to comply with the provisions of the Code.
- 5.4. The use of camera systems by the Council is subject to compliance with its Policy on the Use of Camera Systems, which was approved by the Council's Risk Management Board. This Policy contains the very latest guidance from the Surveillance Camera Commissioner.
- 5.5. The Policy provides a proportionate and common sense approach to meeting the regulatory standards and reassure the public that surveillance cameras in public places operated by Hampshire County Council are there to protect and look after them – rather than look at them – and are operated in a way which is proportionate, effective in meeting a stated purpose and transparent.
- 5.6. The County Council's use of camera systems is inspected and regulated by the Office of the Surveillance Commissioner.

6. Finance

- 6.1. This report will have no effect upon the budgetary position of Hampshire County Council.

7. Performance

- 7.1. The recommendation sought ensures that the County Council continues to comply with the statutory Codes of Practice under RIPA.

8. Conclusions

- 8.1. The County Council recognises that the use of covert surveillance as part of its investigatory activities may cause concern to the public and that it has a responsibility to ensure that its surveillance powers continue to be exercised appropriately and proportionately. It therefore has a robust process for authorisation and monitoring of all surveillance activities and only uses them in relation to the prevention and detection of crime; and where it is lawful, necessary and proportionate to do so.
- 8.2. Additionally, any activities are reviewed and the Policy on Surveillance is renewed every year, which is approved by the Executive Member for Policy and Resources.

9. Recommendations

- 9.1. That the Audit Committee notes the contents of this report and that the County Council's surveillance powers continue to be exercised appropriately and proportionately.
- 9.2. The Audit Committee is also invited to consider the County Council's use of surveillance powers for the previous financial year and to provide the Executive Member for Policy and Resources with assurance that the County Council is operating its powers in a lawful and proportionate manner. Furthermore, the Audit Committee is invited to assure him of the continued use of surveillance powers by the County Council.

IMPACT ASSESSMENTS:

1. Equality Duty

1.1. The County Council has a duty under Section 149 of the Equality Act 2010 ('the Act') to have due regard in the exercise of its functions to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited under the Act;
- Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic (age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, gender and sexual orientation) and those who do not share it;
- Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

Due regard in this context involves having due regard in particular to:

- a) The need to remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by persons sharing a relevant characteristic connected to that characteristic;
- b) Take steps to meet the needs of persons sharing a relevant protected characteristic different from the needs of persons who do not share it;
- c) Encourage persons sharing a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity which participation by such persons is disproportionately low.

2. Equalities Impact Assessment:

2.1. Race and equality impact assessment has been considered in the development of this report and no adverse impact has been identified

3. Impact on Crime and Disorder:

3.1. The County Council has a legal obligation under Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 to consider the impact of all the decision it makes on the prevention of crime. The County Council is only able to lawfully carry out covert surveillance activity on the grounds of prevention and detection of crime and disorder. By complying with RIPA and the statutory Codes of Practice this activity will be carried out without unlawfully contravening the requirements of the European Convention on Human Rights and the Human Rights Act 1998. All activity under RIPA will therefore assist the County Council, where it is both necessary and proportionate to do so, in its aim to prevent and detect crime.

4. Climate Change:

4.1. How does what is being proposed impact on our carbon footprint / energy consumption?

The activities reported within this report have no effect on climate change

4.2. How does what is being proposed consider the need to adapt to climate change, and be resilient to its longer term impacts?

The activities reported within this report have no effect on climate change
